

CODE OF CONDUCT – ATHLETES

ELY ROLLER SKATING CLUB

Ely Roller Skating Club (ERSC) is fully committed to safeguarding and promoting the wellbeing of all its members. The club believes that it is important that members, coaches, parents/ guardians and anyone associated with the club should at all times, show respect and understanding for the safety and welfare of others.

As a ERSC Athlete, you are expected to abide by the following code of conduct:

- Be friendly supportive and kind towards others
- Welcome new members positively
- Show respect to others and show team spirit
- Take responsibility for their personal possessions whilst at training and competitions
- Wear suitable kit to training and competitions
- Show respect towards coaches and officials (judges), and their decisions
- Listen to coaches in training and at competitions, take any feedback constructively
- Report any unacceptable behaviour for example, bullying, peer pressure, violence etc., to either of the coaches or safeguarding lead (Kayley, Charlotte's mum)
- Be gracious in defeat
- Adhere to the Social Media & Fundraising Policy
- Inform coaches if you are going to be late or cannot attend, training and competitions
- Always ask for help and ask questions
- Pay for any fees promptly

Anyone not complying with the code of conduct will be addressed by the coach initially with a witness. Persistent non-compliance could result in a ban from the club.

Any safeguarding matters will be addressed by the ERSC safeguarding lead.

To confirm you have read and understood the above, please email secretary@elyrsc.co.uk with the following:

I [NAME] can confirm that I have read and fully understood the code of conduct set for the athlete's and promise to adhere to the code of conduct at all times.